Insurrection

Music: Cerbin/Cox Lyrics & Melody: Cox

I can't believe what
You feel should be
You wield the power
Of tragedy and destiny
You place on others
The freedom to fall
Expel your dose
You cast your fate to have it all

But you're not the one you see
For freedom is never free
I'm the one you don't foresee
And I'm never gonna let you be
The one to take control of me
I will set your people free
I've made my final decree

It seems that trust
Is a four letter word
Straight from your playbook
The voice of reason never heard
Submission granted
They kneel to your mind
Your soul control
Can be so cold and so unkind

But you're not the one you see
For freedom is never free
I'm the one you don't foresee
And I'm never gonna let you be
The one to take control of me
I will set your people free
I've made my final decree

Force your hand
Not gonna take it
It's my will
You wanna break it
Take a stand
I'm gonna make it
Insurrection
I'm for real
Don't have to fake it
It's my soul
I can't forsake it
Steal you life
I'm gonna take it
Insurrection

Your view of mankind
Is a social disgrace
You take your liberties
With stone heart and smiling face
Should they disagree
They pay with their lives
So they hold their tongues
To live in pain and bitter strife

But you're not the one you see
For freedom is never free
I'm the one you don't foresee
And I'm never gonna let you be
The one to take control of me
I will set your people free
I've made my final decree

Force your hand
Not gonna take it
It's my will
You wanna break it
Take a stand
I'm gonna make it
Insurrection
I'm for real
Don't have to fake it
It's my soul
I can't forsake it
Steal you life
I'm gonna take it
Insurrection . . . Insurrection

Force your hand
Not gonna take it
It's my will
You wanna break it
Take a stand
I'm gonna make it
Insurrection
I'm for real
Don't have to fake it
It's my soul
I can't forsake it
Steal you life
I'm gonna take it
