Sanctuary Of The Mind

Music: Cerbin/Cox Lyrics & Melody: Cox

Stand up for
What you believe
You hold the power
Of what you foresee
The line's been drawn
You take a stand
Don't fight the need
To make your way
Respect your mind's eye
Don't blink it away

When the terror of your life is haunting you
If the demons of the night are leading you
Sanctuary of the mind is saving you

Don't back down
From what you perceive
You're a better man
For what you believe
They look to you
To lead the way
Cuz there's a better life
In the realm of your mind
Don't dare forsake it
Lest you be blind

There must be no mental reservation
Reveal the now
And abandon all hesitation
In your mind

When the terror of your life is haunting you
If the demons of the night are leading you
Sanctuary of the mind is saving you

Unleash the power
From the depths of your mind
Release the gift and
See what you find
You make a choice
For a better way
Complete fulfillment
From the path that you find
It's a dose of grace that
You bring to mankind

When the terror of your life is haunting you
If the demons of the night are leading you
Sanctuary of the mind is saving you
(1 bar musical break)
Sanctuary of the mind is calling you
Sanctuary of the mind is leading you
Sanctuary of the mind is saving you
